Health Screening Camp 22nd Sep 2018

World Health Organization attributes hypertension or high blood pressure, as a leading cause of cardiovascular mortality. Epidemiological studies have shown that hypertension is a “silent killer” with no warning signs. Therefore, knowing that one’s blood pressure is elevated allows individual to take some action to mitigate the rising blood pressure, thus preventing potential end-organ damage, including myocardial infarction, kidney failure and cerebrovascular stroke. On the contrary, a number of studies have shown that early diagnosis and treatment of hypertension leads to better quality of life and increased longevity. Taking this into consideration Faculty and students of Pharmacy Practice department, Sri Indu Institute of Pharmacy, took an initiative to organize a free health checkup for hypertension on 22nd Sep 2018.

A total of about 423 people were encountered for this checkup. This campaign contributed significantly to the awareness of hypertension in general population which is highly encouraging for future efforts for early detection of hypertension and prevention of related mortality. At the end this campaign was a huge success as a great response was received from the crowd.
